WHY MASSAGE?

Massage leaves your workers feeling invigorated, mentally focused and ready to work at their best.

Professional back-neck-and-shoulder massages from our qualified massage therapists are guaranteed to relieve stress and rejuvenate the workplace, keeping your employees engaged and energised.

OUR GOALS

- Promote a healthier workforce
- Boost motivation and productivity
- Reward performance
- Show commitment to employee wellbeing
- Improve the office atmosphere and company culture
- Reduce physical tension in neck, shoulders and back, as a result of sitting for extended durations.
- Reduce tiredness, headaches, stress and anxiety

HOW WE CAN WORK WITH YOU

We aim to create a symbiotic relationship with your company, and allow your workforce the chance to reinvigorate and rejuvenate

Our service options:

Corporate Wellness Program

Show your employees you value their hard work by organising a session with one of more of our staff. Your company is invoiced for the treatments. We provide a booking matrix so you only pay for the bookings taken. No one misses out and everyone has their full time.

Part Pay Arrangement

We can arrange a part employer/part employee payment agreement, for example a 50/50 split.

Scheduled Visits

Your company arranges a regular time for us to come over and advises staff of our presence. We provide a booking system that staff use to book. We perform our treatments then take payments direct from your employees.

Group Pay

A way for employees to band together to get us over to your workplace. Fantastic for small offices where several employees can collaborate with each other, for example, six people all putting in £10 each. We provide a booking matrix and a designated co-ordinator is assigned. This method requires no involvement from you, the employer, We just need permission to work on the premises - All we need is a small quiet space.

In short, we are flexible. Just ask what we can do to help your workforce relax and feel better in no time.
